VACUUM COATING PROCESS

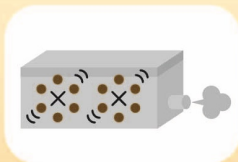

Our secret of deliciousness and high palatability is in one of our production process which the "UMAMI" or "the element of deliciousness" will be penetrated into and kept well inside of the kibble by generating vacuum environment while mixing.

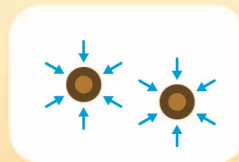

1 Convey the fresh kibbles into the vacuum coating machine

2 Chicken oil containing UMAMI and nutrients is sprinkled onto the kibbles

3 Close the door tightly to shut out the air outside. Then, stirring the kibbles inside while pumping the air out of the machine little by little.

4 inside the machine significantly decreases, so the UMAMI of chicken oil penetrates into and kept well inside of each kibble.
